K300.100 RESTRICTION ON DISCLOSURE OF PRICING INFORMATION (DESC JUNE 2002)

The Government's normal post-award procedures and practices involve the release of successful and unsuccessful unit prices after the conclusion of each procurement to interested parties. Such information is normally released pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act in formats that include abstracts of offers received, bid evaluation model reports, formal notices that are sent to unsuccessful offerors, or other summary formats. In addition, updated prices are publicly posted at the DESC website throughout the delivery period of some contracts.

Prior approval for release of such information is required. Therefore, offerors must advise of any objections to the future release of unit pricing information submitted as part of its initial or final proposals.

In the event offeror objects to the release of unit prices, the rationale for the objection must be included in the initial offer. The Government will determine if it will honor the objection or if it will dispute the objection. Such issues will be resolved during discussions.

_____ Offeror AGREES to the release of unit price proposals.

_____ Offeror DOES NOT AGREE to the release of unit price proposals.
