b. Add Clause K15, RELEASE OF UNIT PRICES (DESC JUL 2002) to the Offeror Submission Package. Offerors are required to return the completed clause below to Sandra Shepherd at facsimile number 703-767-8506.

K15 RELEASE OF UNIT PRICES (DESC JUL 2002)

(a) The Defense Energy Support Center (DESC) has routinely released the unit prices of successful and unsuccessful offerors to interested parties at the conclusion of the procurement. These unit prices are the bottom-line price per unit of product. Unit price may include the total contract price. They do not include any breakout of costs, such as transportation or overhead, and do not disclose the offeror's anticipated profit or any pricing factors. This information has been released pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act in various formats, including abstracts of offers received, bid evaluation model reports, notices to unsuccessful offerors, and other summary formats. Updated contract prices are also publicly posted on the DESC website throughout the delivery period of some contracts. Offerors have not objected to DESC's routine release or disclosure of these unit prices.

(b) DESC does not believe that release of unit prices after award causes any competitive harm. If the offeror disagrees, the offeror must provide a detailed explanation of how it will suffer competitive harm from the release of unit prices after award. The competitive harm explanation is required if the offeror either agrees to release award prices only, or does not agree with releasing any unit prices. This detailed explanation must be provided with the initial offer. DESC will use this information to determine if there is a sufficient basis to withhold the unit price after award. The offeror's indication of disagreement with release of unit prices and/or failure to provide a detailed explanation of competitive harm with the initial offer may result in release of unit prices after award. Failure to agree to the release of unit prices shall not be a factor considered in contract award.

(c) Offerors shall indicate their agreement below to the release of unit prices after award. NOTE: The offeror's agreement or disagreement with release of unit prices must apply to all items and may not be split to apply differently to different line items.

Offeror AGREES to the release of unit prices.

Offeror AGREES to the release of unit prices, but only in the event of contract award. Detailed rationale as to why the release of unit prices of unsuccessful offers would cause competitive harm is attached.

Offeror DOES NOT AGREE to the release of unit prices. Detailed rationale as to why the release of unit prices would cause competitive harm is attached.
