QUESTIONS & RESPONSES

1. When does the land lease expire? (ie: what is the contract period for Hector?)

Response: The lease expires in June, 2070. The contract period will be for 50 years.

2. Who owns the land? (ie: is the lease with the state or the federal government?)

Response: The State owns and will continue to own the land.

3. Is Hector IAP a federal enclave?

Response: Federal enclave status does not apply to this situation.

4. Will the cogeneration facility be privatized?

Response: No. The cogeneration facility will not be privatized.

5. Where is the list of buildings that potentially may be added? Is this list certain?

Response: This list is located under paragraph J5.11. The list is typically based on mission requirements, either current or projected. Any change in mission requirements could potentially result in deletion of some or all of these building requirements.

6. How many copies of my offer must I provide?

Response: Paragraph L.4.3, Distribution was modified to read: "Offeror shall submit an original and three (3) hard copies in three-ring binders and one (1) copy on CD.
